Course for Churches

Welcome to the CreatureKind Course for Churches! Through six sessions, we will be exploring the place of animals in Christian faith and practice. We'll discuss key questions many Christians ask about animals. We'll consider biblical perspectives on animals and the way other Christian thinkers considered them. We'll also learn about how animals are treated today, and what it might mean to put Christian belief about animals into practice.

The course will meet for 6 sessions on the dates below at _____.
Each session will begin at _____ with a simple meal, and end at _____.
